Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 19-36, drawn to a method of treatment of a pathology involving a deregulation of lipid and/or glucose metabolism.

Group II, claim(s) 19-36, drawn to a method of treatment of a pathology related to inflammation.

Group III, claim(s) 19-36, drawn to a method of treatment of a pathology related to cell proliferation and/or differentiation.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: There is no special technical feature in the instant claim set.

Independent instant claim 19 discloses pharmaceutical compounds capable of deregulating lipid metabolism. Townsend et al. (WIPO Publication No. WO 99/10321 and cited by Applicant in the International Search Report provided) disclose a pharmaceutical compound, SI-48 (page 20, third compound from bottom) capable of inhibiting the lipid biosynthesis of mycobacteria (page 3, first paragraph, page 2, lines 4-9 and Abstract). Therefore, the instant claims do not have a special technical feature and thus the claims lack unity.

Applicant is required to elect a group to be examined on the merits.

Election of Species

Compound and Disease/Disorder

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. Currently claims 19-36 are generic to a plurality of patentably distinct species of:

- a. Compounds of formula (I)
- b. Pathology involving a deregulation of lipid and/or glucose metabolism, pathology related to inflammation, and/or pathology related to cell proliferation and/or differentiation

The above listed species are distinct as to the different compounds of formula (I) which all have different chemical structures and different mechanisms of action, leading to different pharmacological action for each pathology which all has different symptomology. Further, the recited species acquire a separate status, because they can be classified in different classification. Different classification of species is prima facie evidence of undue burden of search.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species of one compound of formula (I) and one pathology (e.g., psoriasis) to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Applicant is cautioned that the election of a species of compound which has not specifically been disclosed as filed may be determined to be New Matter.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that to be complete, the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103 (a) of the other invention.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
